HomeTec Brings the Power of Network Marketing Distribution to the Profitable Home Services Industry to Create a Unique Home-Based Business

The American Dream Home = Profits for You!

Millions of people want to achieve the American Dream – of living in a beautiful home in a nice neighborhood. Many have already achieved it and many others still long for it, but today it's easier to live the American Dream of having a home than ever before. Better financing terms and growing numbers of quality home builders help make this dream a reality for many, which means a huge income opportunity for you. We're announcing a revolutionary new way for you to create monthly residual income by serving the needs of millions of home owners and renters nationwide, by marketing a valuable service that everyone needs.

Every Home in America Needs Repairs and Maintenance

No matter where you live, in a home or an apartment, it is most certain that something is going to break down, wear out, get clogged, or need repainting, rebuilding or fixing. You'll always need routine or scheduled maintenance for the life of your home.

The Billion Dollar Home Services Industry

The book, "The Millionaire Next Door", reveals that the average millionaire created their fortune selling simple, everyday services, such as home repair, maintenance, cleaning and other ordinary, basic services to consumers. In fact, the home repair and maintenance industry alone is a $150+ billion dollar a year industry, creating quiet fortunes for many business owners and entrepreneurs who saw the hidden gold mine in the home services industry and took advantage of it.

Get Your Share of the $150 Billion-Dollar a Year Home Services Industry

While many fortunes have been and are still being created in the home services industry, it excludes most people, because it generally takes a lot of venture capital to stake your claim in it. But all this has changed! For the small cost of $39.95 per month and a one-time $30 set up fee, you can start your own home-based business marketing a valuable home service membership plan that provides money-saving benefits and savings for both home owners and renter's alike.

The HomeTec Opportunity

HomeTec, Inc., a Texas-based, innovative home services marketing company, has created a simple way for the average person to share in the profitable billion-dollar home services industry through the power of network marketing distribution and building a home-based business. As a HomeTec Marketing Representative, you can earn weekly fast-start commissions and monthly residual income on your personal sales and on the sales of other representatives in your organization. A unique feature of the HomeTec compensation plan is the power of the matching bonus program. HomeTec officially began in 2007, however, the company is backed by millions of dollars in venture capital. HomeTec's Chief Executive Officer & President is Paul Wood, a successful multi-millionaire entrepreneur. HomeTec's Chief Marketing Officer is Beau Wood, a real estate professional, who was inspired with the concept after a two year struggle to find dependable contractors for his home.
